

blue skies

Baby, I was trying to forget
Something, somebody, I was wandering.

Baby, I am sorry I was late
I was busy taking care of everything.

You were there just waiting for me
And we both know this love we share was really meant to be
Now I see, I only see

Blue skies on everything I do, I see your
Blue eyes looking at me
I can feel your love inside of me, always, I only see

Blue skies on everything I do, I see your
Blue eyes looking at me
I can feel your love inside of me.

Baby, some people think we are going too fast.
Someday they will understand.

Now I don't care about how people feel when they're around us
I just feel good here in your arms against your heart.

We were drawn together through destiny
And since we met each other, we just knew that this was it
And now I see, I only see

Blue skies on everything I do, I see your
Blue eyes looking at me
I can feel your love inside of me, always, I only see

Blue skies on everything I do, I see your
Blue eyes looking at me
I can feel your love inside of me.
