

golden days

Will we be appart endlessly?
Or will I stay in your heart for eternity?

How will I know
Where I'm supposed to go?

You're much too far away
Golden days.

Where should I start, what's the recipe?
Just tell me if it is far, if it's my destiny.

I thought I'd be strong enough
But now I am lost.

You're much too far away
Golden days.

Maybe tonight in my dreams
You'll tell me what, what I am not doing right.

Cause I could bet it's strange
I feel it in my vains
And I still keep the faith
I feel it in my vains, I feel it in my vains

How long is it gonna take?
Golden days.
