

I owe you a dream to come true

I haven't seen it coming
You made it happen again.
It is a pure bliss
I'm not gonna miss this train.

I was so frightened to fall
I was walking on the top of a wall.
I've been chasing a life
That wasn't mine
A life that wasn't mine at all.

I've been trying everything
I was lost in the wind
I needed a gift from you.
Now I know anywhere I'll be
You'll be shining on me
I owe you a dream to come true, to come true.

I've been censuring this dream
I've been hiding behind the scene.
Cause it's been so long
It's time to move on
That's why I'll sing this song now and then

It might be hard to forget
But I'll be proud of what I will get.
There might be doors or even walls to cross
But time after time, my life will be mine.

I've been trying everything
I was lost in the wind
I needed a gift from you.
Now I know anywhere I'll be
You'll be shining on me
I owe you a dream to come true, to come true.
