

in the rain

Will he bring you down?
Should you send him away?
Or should you hold him tight?
I have nothing to say to you
From the bottom of your heart, you got all the answers
You gotta feel alright, cause it's all that matters.

Oh I know it's hard and heavy, but clear your mind
You gotta take it easy, and you'll be fine.

Why are you crying in the rain?
I'll always love you just the same
But I ain't out, I ain't out, why are you coming here again?
You shouldn't be crying in the rain
But never stop calling my name
Cause I ain't out, I ain't out, but I am inside healing the pain.

You've come from afar
A little more everyday
All the things you are
I wish I could have stayed with you.
Will I ever come back? Just to show you sign
Well, you don't need me out, you don't need me aside.

Oh I know it's hard and heavy, but clear your mind
You gotta take it easy, and you'll be fine.

Why are you crying in the rain?
I'll always love you just the same
But I ain't out, I ain't out, I am inside healing the pain.
Why are you coming here again?
I ain't out, I am inside.
